

Education is the Key to Success in Life

The Recipe for Success is Learning How to Learn

- If you are age 18 or younger, and believe you may have a disability that affects your ability to learn; or
- If you are age 22 and under and have a history of receiving special education and related services;
- Please contact: _____
for an assessment to determine if you are eligible to receive special education and related services.

Special Education = Specialized Instruction